Tuesday, Nov. 13, 2007 - 11:45 a.m.

Fairmont Hotel - Gold Room

1717 N.Akard - Dallas

Presented by Jones Sound Hearing Solutions

Who has guided us through floods, tornados, hurricanes, Texas heat waves and balmy weather? Troy Dungan, that's who. We can't let Troy retire after 31 years with WFAA-TV (surely an industry record!) without saying a big THANK YOU!

Honorary event chair, Gloria Campos, will preside, Pete Delkus will be master of ceremonies and we'll have a few musical tributes and some storytelling from current and former Channel 8 associates, including Tracy Rowlett.

Proceeds of the luncheon will go to a Troy Dungan Scholarship, administered by the Press Club of Dallas Foundation. So, gather up your friends who are Troy fans and join us in saying, "Thanks for the memories."

To kick off the holiday season, we'll also be collecting toys for Troy's favorite charity, Santa's Helpers. Please bring a new, unwrapped toy to the luncheon to brighten the smile of a needy child. And, wear your bowtie!
