Charlotte, N.C. will host a Jumah Muslim Prayer Conference next week during the Democratic National Convention. Grand Iman Siraj Wahhaj, who described the U.S. as a "garbage can" and seeks a "caliphate" in the Obama White House, will host the event.

Here are some other intriguing remarks by Imam Wahhaj, as quoted by the Washington Times:

"I now feel responsible to preach, actually to go on a jihad against extremism."

At a solidarity speech in 1995, Wahhaj explained to the world that it was his "duty and our duty as Muslims to replace the U.S. Constitution with the Quran."

He added, "if only Muslims were clever politically, they could take over the United States and replace its constitutional government with caliphate."

He warned the U.S. is doomed unless it "accepts the Islamic agenda."
