President Barack Obama continues to play into the myth that he really is a comedic caricature of the 1990s TV sitcom character, Steve Urkel of ABC TV network's hit show, Family Matters. He will soon make more appearances on TV comedy shows before Election Day.

According to Politico, "look up for President Barack Obama on 'The Daily Show' next week." Comedy Central announced in a news release that he will appear on Jon Stewart's late-night program on Thursday.

As reported by Politico, "it's Obama's sixth appearance on the show and his second visit since taking office. He last sat with Stewart in October 2010."

No word yet, if Biden will be appearing as Big Bird on PBS's Sesame Street Show.
