There will be a City Council briefing today on the proposed Trinity Crossing project. That is the project name for the entertainment district that Billie Bob (of Billie Bob's) is proposing for the infamous Lot E of the Dallas Convention Center. This is the lot that Ray Hunt proposes to swap for the city's Reunion Complex. And yes this is the deal that has Mayor Miller accusing Mr. Hunt of being a liar and, well, a greedy er, so and so. Rather than summarize the details you can read them yourself and decide if there is a devil in the details. (Trinity Crossing Briefing)
